

11 MR JUSTICE MELLOR: Thank you.

12 Well, I thank all the parties for their written 13 closing and oral arguments, and they've been very 14 helpful indeed. They will require me to prepare 15 a fairly lengthy written judgment, which will be handed 16 down in due course. And for all those who have already 17 been hassling my clerk as to when the judgment will be 18 ready, the short answer is as follows: it will be ready
19 when it's ready and not before.

20 However, having considered all the evidence and 21 submissions presented to me in this trial, I've reached 22 the conclusion that the evidence is overwhelming.
23 Therefore, for the reasons which will be explained in 24 that written judgment in due course, I will make certain 25 declarations which I am satisfied are useful and are

1 necessary to do justice between the parties.
2 First, that Dr Wright is not the author of 3 the Bitcoin White Paper.
4 Second, Dr Wright is not the person who adopted or 5 operated under the pseudonym "Satoshi Nakamoto" in 6 the period 2008 to 2011.
7 Third, Dr Wright is not the person who created
8 the Bitcoin System.
9 And, fourth, he is not the author of the initial 10 versions of the Bitcoin software.
11 Any further relief will be dealt with in my written 12 judgment. I will extend time for filing any appellant's
13 notice until 21 days after the form of order hearing, 14 which will be appointed following the hand down of my 15 written judgment and I ask the parties to seek to agree
16 an order giving effect to what I have just stated.
17 So I'm afraid, for any further information, you'll 18 have to wait for the written judgment.
